

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Louise DeLong, and we are richer because Louise lives among us; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Louise was born October 8, 1907, at Fulton, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Louise, a life long resident of South Dakota, graduated from South Dakota State University, and has lived in and served the community of Brookings since 1935; and,

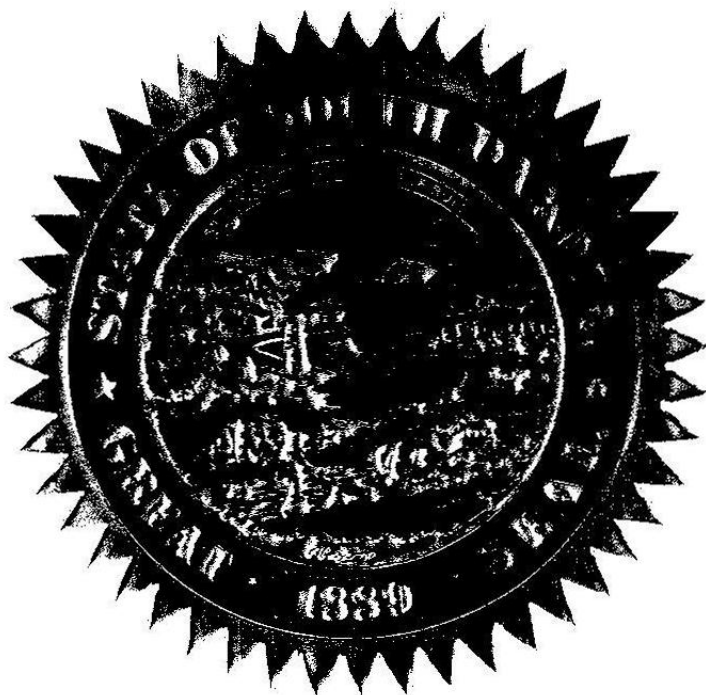

Whereas, Louise resides at Brookhaven Estates, and will observe her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather on October 6, 2007, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 8, 2007, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
